Subject: RE: Halvorsen Marine Supply LLC v. Dunmore Logistics Corp., No. 2:26-cv-01874-RSM

Victor,

Thank you for the call this morning. As discussed, we will make our client's Rule 30(b)(6) designee, Erik Halvorsen, available on November 12 at our office, 1201 Third Avenue, Suite 2900, Seattle, WA 98101. We still need dates for the following Dunmore witnesses identified in your initial disclosures:

1. Gregory Pham, former dispatch manager
2. Hope Lindqvist, claims adjuster
3. Raymond T. Bishop, vice president of operations

Please confirm that Ms. Lindqvist's home address (4417 NE 55th Street, Seattle, WA 98105) is still current for service of the subpoena, and whether we may contact her directly at (206) 555-0138 if your firm no longer represents her. Under the stipulated protective order (Dkt. 42), the driver logs produced as Exhibit 14 will be designated CONFIDENTIAL.

We also note that Exhibit 14 shows the Washington driver license number of the Dunmore driver, Luis Ochoa-Ramirez (WDLX7T4K93B1), and his date of birth (02/11/1979). Please produce a redacted copy under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.2 before October 28 so that we can file it with our motion in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington.

Best regards,

Catherine

Subject: Halvorsen v. Dunmore - depositions and mediation

Catherine,

Our client's general counsel, Pamela Whitcombe, has asked whether Halvorsen Marine Supply would agree to mediation before the January 15, 2027 deadline in the scheduling order. She suggested Hon. Margaret A. Lusk (Ret.) of JAMS, who has handled two cargo damage matters for the Port of Tacoma.

On the interrogatories, we will supplement our answer to Interrogatory No. 7 by the end of the month and produce the purchase orders for the marine fenders that were damaged in transit. Mr. Pham left Dunmore in March 2026; we do not represent him, and his last known address is 2306 S Jackson Street, Seattle, WA 98144.

Regards,

Victor Grande
